However, if there are no more candidates on that particular waitlist, the next candidate from the other list will be invited to join.

MERIT LISTS

Selections are based on two broad categories- Open and Minority Christian/ Sponsored. Selection will be based on inter-se merit between these groups. For e.g. in the MBBS course these are further subdivided into groups as follows:

Open, 10 seats where SC/ST reservation of 20% applies, Central Government nominates 1 student and the rest are filled by merit.

In the minority group 44 seats are filled by candidates from the Christian community. Of these up to 10 seats are held aside for children who are domiciled in and have spent the past 3 of 4 years studying in one of the following states: Bihar, Chattisgarh, Jharkand, MP, Orissa, UP & North-eastern states.

There is no NRI quota; however, up to 6 seats are filled by children of eligible staff of CMC.

The College recognises that merit is not merely academic merit but is, in addition, a collection of various other factors, which go towards suitability to pursue a professional career.

MINORITY CHRISTIAN STATUS

Christian candidates who are regular worshipping members of a Church in India are encouraged to apply under the minority Christian quota. Churches, which are

- a. members of the CMC Vellore Association,
- b. members of the NCCI (National Council of Churches in India) or
- c. other Churches registered with the State or Central Govt.

may apply to the Office of the Council Secretary, Directorate, CMCH to be recognised and to nominate their authorised signatories.

A list of such recognised Churches and Christian Organisations will be kept updated on the College web site for the applicant's convenience. A format to apply for such recognition is also available on the web site.

Further, if they have been domiciled and have spent at least 3 of the past 4 years of schooling in the states of Bihar, Chattisgarh, Jharkand, MP, Orissa, UP & North-eastern states, they may apply with a certificate of domicile and a certificate from the head of the Institution as indicated.

At the time of the interviews, those who have applied under the minority status will be given a test of Bible Knowledge.

SPONSORSHIP

For Group B courses, a number of Christian Churches and Organisations that are members of the College Council are authorised to sponsor candidates to the various courses. This is in keeping with the aim of the institution to train individuals for service in needy areas (especially in Christian mission hospitals). The sponsorship guidelines are given in detail on the college website. Candidates are advised to contact these Sponsoring bodies directly or through their own churches. The list of such agencies are on page 12. The College will not entertain any requests in this regard. For the Diploma in Nursing course alone, CMC encourages women candidates to apply for sponsorship by the College of Nursing, CMC. Those interested please contact Registrar, College of Nursing, CMCH, Vellore 632004, enclosing a self addressed stamped envelope (Rs.5) for the form. Last date for all completed sponsorship forms to reach the College, from candidates and from the sponsoring agencies, is 28th April 2006.

SERVICE OBLIGATION

CMC upholds the value that all its alumni will commit themselves to the service of the poor and marginalised. Towards this end, the cost of education is kept at a very modest level to prevent graduates being burdened with financial preoccupations. Furthermore, all candidates admitted to the various graduate courses will have to undertake a service obligation, to work in an area of need for a period of two years after completion of training. This process, we hope, will nurture our graduates into a life of service and allow them to work in a learning environment where they can take informed decisions about their future careers.

SUPPLEMENTARY SELECTION: In the event of there being one or more vacant seats after the primary selection in the Group B diploma courses there may be a supplementary selection. Candidates eligible for Supplementary Selection will be announced. Availability of seats will be announced regularly by notices on the notice board and on the web site. Eligible candidates who wish to apply for the notified seats may submit applications to the Registrar's Office.

Please note:

- They should have basic eligibility criteria for the courses they apply to.
- There would be no additional registration or other fees.
- These applications forms should be submitted on plain paper quoting their Hall ticket number.
- An interview will be held and selections are made.
- The Management reserves the right to hold supplementary selection.

What kind of examination will it be?

The admission tests are all in English and of the 'objective' or multiple choice answer type (see examples at the end). There will be many questions printed in the test booklet. Each question will have five possible answers printed after it. Your task will be to select the one best answer to each question. There will be ONLY ONE CORRECT ANSWER to each question. For the degree courses (MBBS, BSc – N & MLT, BOT & BPT) there are 60 questions each in Physics, Chemistry and Biology (120 mins total) and 120 questions in General Ability including Speed and Accuracy and a few questions on issues of current topical interest(70 mins). The whole exam is 3 hrs 10 mins. long.

For the Diploma courses, the examination consists of 25 questions each in Physics, Chemistry, Biology and General Ability.

For the BMRSc and other subjects where a background in science is not required, the non-science paper, (NS as it is often referred to) will have 100 questions including English, General Ability, speed and accuracy and a few questions on issues of current topical interest.

How should I write my answer?

In the examination hall, at each session, you will be given a test booklet and an answer sheet.

In the booklet, the choice of answers to each question will be listed alphabetically (after each question five suggested answers will be given) and these choices will be indicated as A,B,C,D,E. In the answer sheet, the serial numbers of each question will be printed and against each number, there will be oval boxes provided for you to shade the correct answer.

Remember that you should shade only one answer for each question. If you shade more than one answer for any question, you will not be given any credit for it even if one of your answers is correct. If you want to change your answer, be sure to erase your wrong answer completely with an eraser and shade the correct oval box.

Should I write my name on the answer sheet?

You must write your hall ticket number, your name and sign in the area provided.

You will be DISQUALIFIED if you write your name or anything else, which reveals your identity in any other part of the answer sheet.

How fast should I work?

Although most of the tests stress accuracy more than speed, it is important for you to use your time as economically as possible. Work steadily and as fast as you can, but with care. Do not worry if you cannot answer all the questions. No one is expected to know the answers to all the questions. Do not waste time on questions that are difficult for you but go on to the other questions and come back to the difficult ones later.

When the time allotted for a test is over, your Supervisor will instruct all the candidates to go on to the next test. Even if you have not yet finished that section of the test, go to the next test IMMEDIATELY or you may lose marks.

Should I Guess? Is there negative marking?

Since the possible answers for each question are provided, you may wonder whether or not to guess the answer for questions you are not certain about. There is no negative marking and hence at times it may be worthwhile making an intelligent guess. That choice is yours and you have to decide.

In the degree (MBBS, etc) combined entrance examination only, credit is given for questions not attempted (those left blank). The credit given is equal to 1/5 (0.2) of the mark for that question. So your score will probably be more if you leave out the questions about which you know nothing. Remember, however, that a correct answer will be given one full mark. So, if you have some knowledge of the question and are able to eliminate one or more of the possible answers, your chances of guessing the correct answer increase. It may be to your advantage to attempt such questions.

How should I prepare for these tests?

These tests have been designed to measure your knowledge, understanding and ability and not just your memory.

It will help to review your science course carefully, making sure that you UNDERSTAND each subject thoroughly. Familiarise yourself with the model questions given below.

What is the syllabus?

The syllabus for the common entrance tests (unless otherwise specified) will be a mixture of 'plus two' level boards recognised by the TN Dr MGR Med University. Papers will be in Physics, Chemistry, Biology and General Ability including Speed and Accuracy and a few questions on current topical interest. Wherever there is a special paper, the syllabus would be based on the qualifying examination required for the subject. Please see the course description in the prospectus/ website.

What will I need at the examination?

You should have your Hall Ticket bearing your roll number with you. Take with you one or two HB pencils and an eraser since you will need a pencil to shade the correct answer on the answer sheet and if you make a mistake, you will need an eraser to erase the mistake.

This is all that you will need for the examination. You will NOT be permitted to take rough paper, scales, calculators, slide rule, logarithm tables, drawing instruments, or CELLULAR PHONES into the examination hall, as they are NOT needed. You need not memorise these directions since the most important ones will be repeated in the examination hall.

Some sample questions from each of the various tests are given below. These cover most of the types of questions that will be asked. There may, however, be some other varieties also. You will be given instructions and examples for each type of question when you start a new section on the question booklet. So take time to read the instructions carefully and go over the examples.

You will have approximately half-a-minute to answer each question. Check your answers with the correct answers given at the end of these pages.

How are selections made?

Soon after the examination, dummy numbers are assigned to each answer paper and all further corrections and computations are done anonymously. After correction, the marks are converted to stanine grades and a final grade is worked out. Selection to the interviews is done purely on the basis of inter-se merit (i.e. within different categories) using dummy numbers. After interview lists are finalized, identities of only those candidates who have been called are unmasked.

Candidates are called for interview based on a ratio to seats available - up to seven times the number for open candidates, four times the number of those applying under SC/ST category and twice the number of Christian minority candidates are invited to the interview in the MBBS course. These ratios are similar for the other courses. The interviews and other tests focus on evaluating the person and his/her aptitude for the course.
